

1. enable two-step authorization

2. then below we go into application passwords, create a new one inside (select the type of application - mail, device - "other")

3. Google will generate a 16-character password, use this pass INSTEAD of the account password, drive it into the terminal and it works

